Guided Tour Information

About the DCCA: The DCCA is a 35,000-square-foot facility on the Wilmington Riverfront. It is a non-collecting museum that houses seven galleries, 26 artists' studios, a gift shop, auditorium, and a classroom. We present more than 30 exhibitions annually of regionally, nationally and internationally recognized artists who work in a variety of media.

About our Guided Tours: DCCA offers gallery tours to school, community, and adult groups. Follow your gallery tour with a DCCA Artist Studio visit or a gallery-based, hands-on, art project (special fees apply). Tours are offered Tuesday through Sunday.

- Times: T, TH, F, SAT 10am - 5pm and W & SUN 12pm - 5pm
- Length: Allow for approximately 45 minutes for a guided tour of the galleries. Add 15 minutes for an artist studio visit.
- Reservations: Make reservations at least three weeks in advance of your desired visit date. Earlier reservations are strongly recommended to ensure availability.
- Numbers: Guided tours are appropriate for 5 to 50 people.
- Studio Visits: It is possible to visit one or more of the 26 artists' studios at the DCCA. Please note this option is subject to the artists' availability. If you are interested in touring the DCCA artist studios, please discuss with the Education department.
- Hands-on workshops: Adult, school, and community groups can schedule basic art-making workshops led by a DCCA teaching artist to follow a tour, although a tour component is not required. Workshops last 45 minutes and are held in the DCCA classroom. Special fees apply.
- Chaperones: One adult chaperone is required for every ten children 18 years and under.
- Group Dining: No group or school dining area is available at the DCCA facility. There are several restaurants in the area; DCCA Visitor Services can recommend several options.
- Special Needs: The DCCA is accessible to groups with special needs. Please call for details.
